APPENDIX- L

DETERMINATION OF RIGHTS IN RESPECT OF MEHDUDA FORESTS OF BILAPSUR STATE

No.-I Naina Devi Forest

1. The area of forest is 6354 acres according to the survey map and 10298 acres according to the settlement map. Now on examination and preparation of a new map the area was found to be 7751 acres. Out of this 7248 acres are Mehduda forests belonging to the state and 503 acres cultivated and uncultivated belong to the village proprietors. This has been excluded from the Mahduda forest and included in the village area. Seventy one villages have rights of user in this forest. 43 villages enjoy extensive rights and 28 villages have limited rights. For the exercise of rights of user of these villages there are 17188 acres of Dehati forests and Banjar. Thus there are 24436 acres for enjoyment of the right of user of 71 villages. This area is encumbered with the rights of 2644 houses, 7668 inhabitants and 12048 cattle. On an average there are 2 acres per head of cattle for pasturage and 7.5 acres per house for exercise of rights of user.
2. The rights of the 71 village, which have been maintained are given below:-

In the 41 plots of Kot Dhar, 120 villagers possess grazing rights and 159 villages possess other rights of user. The total number of cattle of these villages is 15,792 and there are 2,910 houses with a population of 11,096. The average area per head of cattle is 1/1/8 acres and per house 5/1/6 acres.

GRAZING RIGHTS

(A) There are plots covered by bamboos in the grass reserve. When the off-shoots of bamboos are sprouting, grazing is stopped from the 15th Har to 15th Assoj. The right holders have no right to graze their cattle in the plots closed on account of cultural operations.

OTHER RIGHTS

(B) Timber will be allowed for new buildings and repairs at the rate fixed for other right-holders.

(C) The inhabitants of these villages can water their cattle within the limits of the forest and can also fetch water for their own requirements. They can take them along the existing tracks.

- (D) They can take out stumps of Chil for torches, but they should fill up the pits with stones and earth.
- (E) The right-holders can take away fallen wood for fuel free of charge.
- (F) The right holders can cut Garna, Mehandu and Thohur and other thorny bushes from amongst the standing trees from each place as may be pointed out by the forest officer, and use the same as fuel free of charge.
- (G) They can cut grass for their bonafide requirements from the forest except from the grass reserves of from the plots reserved for the improvement of the forest.
- (H) They can cut the thorny shrubs for fencing.
- (I) The forest officer will distribute proportionately trees and bushes, if available, in the months of Magh and Phagan for making agricultural implements and manufacturing charcoal.
- (J) The grass in the grass reserves will be auctioned to the right holders. If they refuse it will be sold to the non right holders.
- (K) The fuel wood shall not be sold to non right holders, nor shall they have a right to grazing.
- (L) If there is no tree in the right holders, own land or in the Dehati forest a tree 4 feet in girth shall be given free from these plots for burning their dead.
- (M) The Raja Sahib may restrict rights in any particular plot for a specific period and may order sowing of seeds of planting of seedlings in such plots, provided a course does not interfere with grazing, if it does another plot shall be set a part for the purpose.

No. XIX-SAUNAL FOREST KNOWN AS CHAMYON

This forest contains fuel trees and shrubs. The survey officials did not survey the grass reserve in this forest nor was it surveyed at the time of the settlement. Now it has been surveyed according to the order of the Superintendent. The total area of this forest is 1,777 acres. Out of this 50 acres belong to the proprietors. This has been excluded from the forest and included in the Dehat. The remaining 1,727 acres of grass reserve and 4,107 acres of Dehati pasture are included in this forest. The men of 11 villages have grazing rights in this forest and the men of 15 villages have other rights of user. There are 522 houses of the right holders with a population of 2,200 and 2,470 cattle. This gives an average of 2/1/2 acres per cattle and 11 acres per house.

 24. To set up or to work a flour mill without permission.
 25. To commit such other act as is opposed to these rules or the Forest Law and Regulations.
- (7). The forest officer is authorised to receive compensation according to the Forest Law, from the person who commits breach of these rules and is prepared to pay compensation. If he is not willing to pay compensation the forest officer is authorised to challan the case to the competent court. Except the Nazam of the forest no other forest official is authorized to determine or to realize compensation.
- (8). It shall be incumbent on the Lambardars, Zaildars, Patwaris, Police Officials and Chaukidars to render help to the Forest Officer when called upon to do so in connection with the breach of these rules or the offences mentioned in the Forest rules and directions which are now in force or which may hereafter be promulgated, and in tracing out the offenders. If they observe any person committing breach of the rules and law or hear of such breach they should make a report thereof to the Forest Department. They should render help when required to do so regarding arson and the theft of trees and grass. Thus they should help to check the commission of such crimes and to make their recurrence impossible.
- (9). The right-holders are bound to render help in the apprehension of an offender, in checking the commission of such crimes and in tracing out the cases when the offences mentioned in these rules and in the Forest Law and Regulations are committed in their village, or in the areas where they have been declared to have right of user. If they willfully connive at such offences or assist in concealing of offences which may lead to increase in crime the Raja Sahib after inquiring may prohibit the exercise of rights defined in paragraph 1 of Chapter IV by the right-holders of certain periods.
- (10). No right-holder can sell or mortgage his rights to other right-holder or non-right-holder, nor can he sell the wood he has taken for his own use, Of course, he can sell to other person the fuel wood and grass he has obtained in an auction. In case of breach of the rules when the offence is in respect of the property the value of which exceeds Rs.50 the case should be instituted under section 414 of the Indian Penal Code, and when the value is less than that amount, the case will be decided according to these rules.
- (11). In the cases of breach of the rules the sentence shall not exceed three months imprisonment and Rs. 200/- fine. The case will not be tried by a Magistrate who has second class powers.
- (12) All the proceedings relating to the forests shall be taken under the orders of the Wazir Sahib, who shall submit to the Raja Sahib all the administration reports for approval. Trees should not be sold by auction to non right holders without the permission of the Raja Sahib.
- (13) It depends on the will of the Raja Sahib to allow Gaddis and Kinauras to graze their cattle, but the time has come when the pasturage is becoming scarce. If nothing is done in connection with grazing, the progress of the forest will be impeded. Regarding this grazing the order of the Punjab Government is that the Gaddis and Kinauras should be ejected from grazing by giving them two years notice. This order has been complied with up to this day. It must now be carried out from Sambat 1970. The Goshwara (statement) appended below will show in what year and which Gaddis and Kinauras as will be ejected.
